GANG WILL NOW BE BROKEN UP

Visible Signs of Uneasiness Are Now Seen Among Members of a Certain Gang.

OFFICERS ARE INVESTIGATING

Fred Bennett Stoutly Maintains That he is Innocent and Gives the Officers a Hot Tip.

City Marshal Price is at work on the robbery cases in this city, and it is not at all unlikely that several arrests will follow within the next few days. There are visible signs of uneasiness among a certain gang in Rushville and it is understood that two or three of them have shaken the dust of the city from their feet and have removed to "healthier" pastures new.

With the details of the first hold up made public came several startling stories of bold work that has been carried on here for a number of weeks. In most instances the men robbed were in an intoxicated condition. Some of them did not report the robbery to the police for they did not desire the publicity of being a principal in such an affair, insomuch as they were intoxicated at the time they were robbed. Others have been held up and robbed when they were so drunk that they never knew what occurred. They would come back to a state of sobriety with a dark brown taste in their mouths and their pockets cleaned of all the cash they possessed when they started on the spree. In such a condition they never knew what became of their money, although it is understood on good authority, that a number of robberies have occurred in just this manner, for some of the gang have begun to weaken and if arrested will probably "peach" on the ring leaders.

Fred Bennett, in jail for the hold-up of John Dyke, Tuesday night, stoutly maintains that he is innocent. However, he has shown a willingness to put the officers on to several other fellows, who boasted of being successful in their nefarious practice. One or two suspects have been closely watching City Marshall Price in his investigations, and even made so bold as to make suggestions. The officer was on the point of arresting one persistent fellow who trailed him offering alibis for every other fellow under suspicion. Since he has appeared to be so vitally interested in the cause of others, he will now be watched. Deputy Prosecutor Morgan has much of the evidence in hand and will push the investigation.

LOCAL BARBER OUT WITH A CHALLENGE

C. B. Perrin, a Twenty Second Barber, Wants a Contest, and Nobody is Barred.

IS FAST WITH THE STEEL

C. B. Perrin, a barber employed by Will Ferguson at the Windsor hotel barber shop, issues a challenge to any barber in the county for a quick shave. Perrin says he is able to do a clean, record shave in twenty seconds. This does not include lathering the face, but merely shaving off the beard. The world's record is eighteen seconds.

TO LEAVE FOR EUROPE SOON

Mrs. May Donnan Will Spend Summer in Travel and Study.

Mrs. May W. Donnan of Indianapolis, who conducts a study class in Rushville will leave for Europe Saturday, May 22, sailing on the "Koenigin Luise," and landing at Genoa. Mrs. Donnan spends her summers in travel and study in preparation for her class work. She will attend the summer term at Oxford, England.

DIAPASON SINGERS WILL MEET SUNDAY

Morristown Class Will Hold Interesting Meeting—Rush County to Hold Postponed Meeting.

SOMETIME IN NEXT MONTH

The Diapason Singing Class has completed arrangements to hold its annual meeting in the Methodist Episcopal church in Morristown next Sunday. The class is a continuation of the Old Missouri Harmony Singers which was organized in the year 1839 in Asbury chapel. The officers of the class are Theophilus Hargrove, president; Lon Myers, vice-president; Florence Rock, secretary and treasurer.

The Diapason singers of Rush county will hold their postponed meeting in June.

TRUSTEE MAKES A REPORT ON DOG TAX

Shows a Total of 326 Dogs in Rushville Township, Including the City.

ONE HUNDRED AND ONE UNPAID

The number of dogs in Rushville township, including the city, shown by the assessors' returns, total 326. Two hundred and seventy-nine of this number are males and forty-seven are females. The tax was paid the assessor on 198 males and 27 females, amounting to $245, leaving 81 males and 20 females with taxes unpaid. If all of the dog tax was paid it would amount to $326. The trustee is compelled under the law to turn the delinquents over to the prosecuting attorney for collection if not paid within two weeks.

NEW WALL PAPER WRINKLE.

A thrifty housewife always, when she has her walls freshly papered, spreads an extra roll of the paper in the sun of the back yard for a day, so as to fade it to match her walls after they have been exposed to the sunlight and dust for a time. This is done in case patching is needed.

DOGS' RACE SUICIDE.

Race suicide even prevails among the dogs of Rushville township. Trustee Gregg received but $245 this spring from the assessors who collected dog tax, against $313 last year.

THE DELAY TONIGHT.

A break in the big press of the Daily Republican caused a delay of several hours this afternoon in printing the papers.

SHEPHERD MAY DIE IN THE JAIL FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Manilla Man Said to be in a Precarious Condition—Has Served Fourteen Months.

HAS HAD CHECKERED CAREER

Made a Daring Escape From Jail by Sawing Bars—Was Captured in Rush County.

Will Shephard, who has been a resident of the Shelby county jail for the past eight months, is in a precarious condition and not expected to live says the Shelbyville Republican. At least that is the report that emanated from the county jail today. The only way to save the life of Shephard is that he be given his freedom, but at this time the outlook in that direction does not look very flattering.

Republican readers are familiar with Shephard's case. It will be remembered that he was found guilty of assault and battery on a young girl who resided with her parents near Fountaintown. The affair is said to have taken place on or near the Shelby county fair grounds, during the time of the fair 1907, and Shephard was barely saved from the clutches of a howling mob, which hastily gathered as soon as the report of what he had done became generally known. The jury in the case agreed that he should be given a fine of $1000 and should serve a six months' jail sentence.

Shephard has now spent fourteen months behind the bars but in the interim he made a daring escape, but was captured by Sheriff John Butler, assisted by Sheriff Will King of Rush county. The capture was affected on the farm of a relative near the city of Rushville.

The case of Shephard is one of the most peculiar in the annals of the State of Indiana. If the $1,000 fine had been paid Shephard would have been given his liberty eight months ago but as he and his relatives are bitterly opposed to such a method of procedure it is highly probable that the "remittance" will not be forthcoming. At the present rate of taxation Shephard costs Shelby county over fifteen dollars each week. The services of a physician are required, and yesterday Dr. H. E. Phares made two calls to see Shephard as he was in great pain.

It is authoritatively stated that relatives of Shephard will employ attorneys in an effort to secure his freedom, but this move is apt to prove fruitless because of the fact that the only way Shephard can obtain his freedom is to have his fine remitted by Governor Marshall. If he lays out all of the fine it will be several months before he can call himself a free man.

FEASIBLE PLAN FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Expert Shaw Met With Business Men This Afternoon—First Steps Taken.

EASY PLAN OF ORGANIZATION

Which is Not Burdensome on Any of the Business Men Who Will be Vastly Benefitted.

To promote a Chautauqua movement in this city, a meeting of a number of the business men was held this afternoon at the court house and the first steps taken toward an organization. James A. Shaw, an expert, who has made a success of a number of big Chautauquas in other cities was present and outlined, in a comprehensive manner, a most feasible and equitable plan. He proposes to sell eighty shares of stock in what will be a permanent organization. The shares cost fifteen dollars and will be sold among the business and professional men of the city. In return for these shares each subscriber receives full value for he gets ten season tickets which he may sell at one dollar and fifty cents each. All subscribers for the tickets are members of the organization and are entitled to a vote at the meeting which will be held to elect officers from their number. Supt. Shaw would then work in unison with the executive board selected. The plan insures, first of all, a good attendance, and that means the Chautauqua will be a success. The eighty men working for a big crowd would mean one of the best organizations that ever was behind any movement in Rushville.

Supt. Shaw will come to Rushville next week, and in conjunction with a committee named, will canvass the city and work up the eighty names required on the subscription list. This should be an easy task as there is a good spirit prevalent here for a Chautauqua. Supt. Shaw has many feasible plans and looks after the many little details that are generally overlooked by those not experienced in taking charge of such a large undertaking. He will bring some of the best talent now being heard on the lyceum stage, for he has charge of Chautauquas in a number of cities and can contract for his talent on a "wholesale" scale.

In addition to the regular Chautauqua work Supt. Shaw has many clever schemes and ideas which he puts into execution. One is a big parade on the second day of the Chautauqua; it is made up of the various Sunday schools over the county and floats arranged by persons interested. At Richmond last year he had over five thousand in line. The business men decorated their stores and the parade attracted more people to the city than was ever there before, even on such occasions as the appearance of the Barnum & Bailey circus. The business men profit by such a big day, as they always do on such events.

In many cities, where they do not have a commercial club, as is the case in Rushville, much good grows out of the Chautauqua movement. With eighty business and professional men interested in a common cause, a feeling of good fellowship and mutual interest is promoted. And since the organization becomes a permanent one, it means a great deal to the city. Supt. Shaw should be given every encouragement by the business and professional men of Rushville, for we are indeed fortunate to have such a competent, hustling and enterprising man offer to come and assist in an undertaking that means so much for the community. Not only is it a great factor for a higher moral and intellectual influence, but the city is widely advertised by such an enterprise and the volume of business and patrons increased for "all roads lead to Rushville, when a Chautauqua is in progress."

TIME OF MEMORIAL SERVICES CHANGED

Will be Held Sunday Morning Instead of Evening at St. Paul's M. E. Church.

BACCALAUREATE CONFLICTED

The memorial day sermon will be preached at St. Paul's M. E. church by Dr. V. W. Tevis Sunday morning, May 30, instead of the evening, as was first announced. The change was made to accommodate the graduating class of the high school as their baccalaureate address will be made at the Main Street Christian church Sunday evening. The members of the G. A. R. and the Women's Relief Corps will attend the memorial day services in a body.

LURED BY THE GLARE OF THE FOOTLIGHTS

Billy Williams, the Evangelist, Will Return to the Stage—Doing Well at Paris, Ill.

SAYS HE NEEDS THE MONEY

Billy Williams, the former minstrel man, reformed drunkard and evangelist, who preached in Connersville this winter, is referred to as follows in a telegram from Paris, Ill.: "Billy Williams, the former minstrel star, who has been delivering temperance addresses in this city, has succumbed to the allurements of the footlights and will return to his old vocation. He says he will continue to do temperance work as the opportunity may offer, but that necessity requires more remunerative employment. He has accordingly been booked for a week by a local vaudeville theater. On his arrival here Williams was received by the local ministers who placed their pulpits at his disposal, but as the result of two mysterious disappearances, one of which was on the eve of a big union meeting arranged in his behalf, and his failure to account satisfactorily for his conduct, he has been refused further countenance by the clergy. Williams says these periods were attended with a lapse of memory."

STORY IN THE SUNDAY STAR

On Next Sunday Feature With Pictures of Local Girls Will Appear.

The following letter from J. A. Stuert, Sunday editor of the Indianapolis Star is self explanatory:

"If you can see your way clear to grant the favor, will you please announce in the Republican that the Sunday Star (May 23) will have a page feature on the Tri Kappa girls publishing a daily paper? It will do the Republican some good as well as the Star. The illustrations are good and I think the feature will be a dandy."

SHEEPSKINS TO BE PRESENTED

To Graduate of Eighth Grade on Educational Day at Christian Church.

COMPLETE COMMON BRANCHES

Number of Graduates Totals 112—Diplomas to be Given by Sup. Randall.

Educational Day exercises will be held at the Main Street Christian church Wednesday, June 9, when the one hundred and twelve graduates of the eighth grade schools of the county will receive their diplomas. An interesting program has been arranged for the day and a large attendance is expected. The diplomas will be presented by County Superintendent Orlando Randall.

The following named pupils have passed the required examinations and have completed the common school branches and as a reward will be given their "sheepskins."

OLD SOLDIERS PARADE AGAIN

The Indiana Department G. A. R. in Annual Review at Crawfordsville Today.

THOUSANDS WITNESS MARCH

Rumor Has it That W. R. C. and Ladies of the G. A. R. Are Seeking Consolidation.

Crawfordsville, Ind., May 20.—After years of rivalry, at times not unmixed with bitterness of feeling, are the Woman's Relief Corps and the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, department of Indiana, to consolidate their forces? There is undeniably a strong movement in that direction in operation at the present encampment, and even if nothing definite is done toward the consummation of this friendly merger at this reunion, the entering wedge shall have been entered and who can tell what may be the result by the time of next year's reunion.

The W. R. C. is the official auxiliary organization of the G. A. R., and is so recognized by that body. The W. R. C. is much stronger than the Ladies of the G. A. R., and its work in G. A. R. circles in the state has been more efficient. The officers of the W. R. C. expressed the wish that steps be taken leading to the consolidation of the two bodies.

"We would like to have the Ladies of the G. A. R. become members of our body and join in our work under the Relief Corps banner," said Mrs. Anna C. Tucker, department president of the W. R. C., this morning. "In union there is strength, and we believe that the work of the two organizations would be enhanced if they both labored as one organization under the W. R. C. banner."

The Annual Review.

The chief feature of today's program, of course, was the annual parade and review of the old soldiers this afternoon. Beginning at 1:30, this impressive spectacle attracted thousands who lined the sidewalks along the line of march, cheering the veterans as they passed. Besides the members of the Grand Army of the Republic in the parade, the Spanish War veterans and the Indiana National Guard were well represented. A number of veterans of the Mexican War were given posts of honor, riding in carriages at the head of the column. The department encampment was opened at 9:30 in Music Hall. Mayor Voris delivered an address of welcome to the veterans which was responded to by Department Commander John D. Alexander. At the same hour the convention of the Woman's Relief Corps was being held in the Christian church, while the Ladies of the G. A. R. assembled at Elks' Home. Today's program will terminate with public "camp fires" tonight and tomorrow the veterans will assemble for the transaction of general business and the election and installation of department officers.

Spirited Rivalries.

Col. Chester G. Thompson, of Lafayette, who is one of the candidates for the position of department commander, has his headquarters in the Crawford hotel. O. A. Somers, of Kokomo, the other candidate for the office, also has headquarters and both are making an active canvass. The race between the two promises to be spirited, but indications now are that Somers is in the lead for the honor.

Equally spirited promises to be the contest for department president of the W. R. C. There are three candidates—Dr. Anna Boram, of South Bend; Mrs. Alice S. Pike, of Danville, and Mrs. Lucy S. Clark, of Michigan City. Dr. Boram, it is predicted, will lead in the race.

FEUD ENDS IN SHOOTING

Hux Williams, Saloon Keeper of Linton, in Trouble at Herrin, Ill.

Herrin, Ill., May 20.—Hux Williams, a saloon keeper from Linton, Ind., shot and fatally wounded W. L. Flinn, eighteen years old, in the American Club rooms. Posses are trying to find Williams. The trouble is the result of an old feud. Williams killed John Sine in a saloon in this city four years ago while shooting at another man, and a year before that he killed a man in Kentucky.

THE FRENCH SEAMEN DECIDE TO STRIKE

Latest Developments In Turmoil of Labor.

Paris, May 20.—A congress of the seamen's unions last night decided to join the movement inaugurated by the federation of labor in aid of the postal employees, and an appeal has been sent to all the seamen at large and small ports to cease work immediately.

The copper molders and cabinet makers also held meetings and decided to strike, and the secretaries of the electricians, provisions trades and biscuit makers declared at a meeting of the diggers' union that their representative unions were ready to go out at any time. On the other hand a referendum of the gas men rejected the strike project by a large majority.

The officers of the general federation of labor have sent out an appeal to the provincial unions affiliated with it, urging them to do their utmost to ensure an immediate strike throughout France. Two additional small unions, the hat makers and the ornament makers, decided to strike on Friday.

His Visit Cut Short.

Havana, May 20.—The visit of the American secretary of war, Jacob M. Dickinson, to Havana, has been cut short, owing to his illness, and the United States converted yacht Mayflower, on which he arrived here Tuesday, sailed at 10 o'clock last night with the secretary and party aboard. Secretary Dickinson will be taken direct to Washington. He has been confined to his state room for three days, suffering from vesical stone.

LAW AGAINST BLEACHING

Secretary of Agriculture Has Made a Ruling to Take Effect on June 3d.

WILL CHANGE COLOR OF FLOUR

Pristine Whiteness Will Give Place to a Light Golden Color.

After June 3 the complexion of the staff of life is to undergo a change, and its pristine whiteness will give place to a light golden color. White bread has been abolished in accordance with the ruling of the Secretary of Agriculture to the effect that millers must not bleach their flour. The ruling went into effect some little time ago, but the millers have until June 3 to dispose of their stock.

It is said that the difference between bread made from bleached flour and that made from the unbleached will be about as great as that between angel food and sponge cake. The difference, however, is said to be mainly in the color and little in the flavor.

Opinion is divided whether the bleaching process deprives the flour of any of its nutritive qualities. A widely circulated medical journal says in regard to the matter:

"The public would be well advised to abandon the fallacious notion that white bread is a mark of quality. The destruction of the natural color of the flour by bleaching agents runs parallel with the destruction of its attractive flavor."

Whatever influences the bleaching agent may really have on the quality of the bread, every woman who bakes her own bread knows that its snowy color depends very often on the way the ingredients are combined, and also in what proportion they are used. Milk will make much whiter bread than water, and lard for shortening instead of an admixture of butter. However, if the flavor of the bread is good the color has very little to do with it, except to please the eye, although this item is an important one, or should be in the preparation of food.

CLOTHING MEN IN A DAMAGE SUIT

Claim Their Business Reputation Was Injured by Their Competitors.

BY A SIGN IN THE WINDOW

Alleging that their reputation as good business men had been damaged and their business injured, Morris F. Rosenbush and Harry Rosenbush, doing business as Morris F. Rosenbush & Co., this afternoon filed suit in the Bartholomew circuit court against M. Denning, doing business as the Mail Order Clothing Company, demanding $1000 damages, says the Columbus Republican.

The complaint alleges that on May 14, a coat of a brownish hue was displayed in the window of the Denning clothing establishment, which is just across the street from the Rosenbush store. It is alleged that this coat bore the name of M. F. Rosenbush & Co. and the initials M. F. R. F. & Co., Columbus, Ind., intending, the complaint alleges, to make it appear that the coat had come from the Rosenbush store. On the coat, it is alleged, was placed a placard which said: $18. RAY OF LIGHT IN DARK PLACES

How Labor Strikers Are Called Off in Chicago in Building Trades Strikes.

SOME INTERESTING TESTIMONY

Concerning the Methods Pursued in Negotiations With Labor Leader in the Windy City.

Chicago, May 20.—A ray of light was flashed into the dark places of the one building trades strike in Chicago and how a quiet transfer of money was made from one purse to another when the state cracked its case against Martin B. (Skinny) Madden, president of the Associated Building Council of Chicago, and his associates, F. A. Pouchout, and M. J. Boyle, all of whom are charged with conspiracy to extort $1,000 from the Joseph Klicka Company, a Chicago concern which had a strike on its plant last winter while it was in course of construction.

The story of the alleged extortion as told by D. L. Frazer, a construction engineer employed by Post & Maeher, architects of the Klicka plant, and somewhat softened by Emil Klicka, president of the Joseph Klicka company, in substance follows:

The blow fell on November 18, for no apparent reason. The job seemed "regular" and Mr. Klicka sent Mr. Frazer to investigate. The latter saw Boyle, who said the strike had been called because there was a non-union man working on it. He added, when asked how the matter could be settled, that Klicka would have to see Madden. The following day Klicka and Frazer waited for some time in the saloon until Madden and his motor car arrived, after which Madden and Klicka entered a little private office at the end of the bar. The interview was interrupted by a trip to the bank by Klicka, and Frazer, who returned with $200 which was, it is alleged, given to Boyle to compensate him for expenses incurred in calling the strike. Mr. Klicka, hoping that Boyle would bring the trouble to an end, Boyle, however, said that the settlement was up to Madden. There was another interview with Madden in the little mahogany office at the end of the bar, but on the termination of it Messrs. Frazer and Klicka in their testimony differed somewhat. Frazer declared that Madden had demanded $1,500 as the price of putting the men back at work and that Klicka emerged from the office cursing earnestly and branding the price as an outrage. Klicka's version was that he told Madden the price was "a little high."

At any rate the price was not agreed upon at that time. Following Frazer and Klicka, George S. Andres, a construction engineer, was placed on the stand. According to his own and Klicka's testimony, Klicka gave him $1,000 with which to settle the strike, and approached the former with a statement that it could be done for that sum. Meanwhile some trouble had brewed between the new agent and Madden.

"I told him I wanted to settle the strike and asked if he would accept $500," testified Andres. "He answered how the matter could be settled by telling me to go to—, you know, and then I offered him $750."

"Nix," he answered. "I asked him if $1,000 would do."

"And what did he answer?"

"Bring up the dough." So I went to Klicka, got the check, and got ten one hundred bills at the bank. It was night before Madden showed up and then I offered him the money.

"How am I to know the strike will be called off if I give you the money?" I asked him. "Don't worry," he said, and then I said 'here's your money.' He said, 'I never took any money from you,' and I said I knew he did not."

Andres smiled as he described the farce. He said he asked Madden what to do with the money and the latter told him to throw it on the floor or on the desk. Andres laid it on the desk and invited the labor leader out to have a drink. The latter acquiesced and as they moved out Madden dropped a blotter over the money, seized the pile and shoved it in his pocket.

The next day the strike was called off and the men returned to work.

Denounced the Sugar Trust.

Washington, May 20.—A denunciation of the sugar trust and an appeal for a smaller differential duty on refined sugar in the interest of consumers were the features of an extended address before the senate by Senator Clay of Georgia. All sections of the metal schedule were agreed to and Mr. Aldrich announced that he would take up sections previously passed over in the chemical schedule.

Like Finding Money

When one needs it is to be able to secure a good loan from Walter E. Smith. It is just simply a matter of business, no asking favors and no sacrificing your pride or independence, but furnishing the proper security and having the money paid into your hand. Loans made on household goods, etc., and paid back by the week or month. Farm loans a specialty.

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum but a medicine of known composition and with a record of 40 years of cures. Accept no substitute—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors.

SALE OF BANKRUPT PROPERTY BEGINS

A. Booth & Co., the Defunct Trust, Will Sell to the Highest Bidder.

LARGE AMOUNT OF PROPERTY

Chicago, May 20.—The bankrupt sale of A. Booth & Co., the defunct fish trust, is proceeding today by order of Justice Kohlsaat. All bidders were obliged to put up $100,000.

The property to be sold consists of steamboats, sailboats, leaseholds, cold storage houses, stores, fish stock on hand and all the real and personal property used in the business of Booth & Co.

The firm had property in nearly every State and in nearly every large city in the union.

The most valuable leaseholds are in Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Illinois.

The property is estimated to be worth $6,000,000 and represents an investment of about $10,000,000. At the time of the receivership proceedings were started, the firm had $1,200,000 in cash and $5,000,000 worth of property, and the gross sales of the concern were estimated at $11,000,000 annually.

LIBEL SUIT IN CONGO STATE

Two American Missionaries, Revs. Wm. Morrison and W. H. Sheppard on Trial.

WHITE MEN ARE INTERESTED

London, May 20.—All white men in the Congo Free State are interested intensely in the trial for libel of two American missionaries—the Rev. William Morrison and the Rev. W. H. Sheppard—which, according to latest reports, will begin in Leopoldville today. This case is expected to be a test between the Belgian government and the American missionaries, who have long made themselves a thorn in its flesh by their charges of maladministration and oppression of the natives in connection with the rubber trade.

MONUMENT TO ADAM.

Builder Says First Man Should Have Homage Paid to Other Pioneers.

Believing that it is better late than never, John P. Brady of Baltimore, contractor and builder, has had erected at his country house, Hickory Grounds, near Gardenville, Md., a monument to the memory of Adam, the first man.

After spending much thought upon designs for the monument Mr. Brady came to the conclusion that nothing could be more fitting than a plain square shaft of concrete surmounted by a sundial.

Without saying that women will not be admitted, Mr. Brady wishes the occasion of the dedication to be distinctly masculine. He has no intention at any time to erect a memorial to Eve. The monument bears two opposite panels, which read:

THIS, THE FIRST SHAFT IN AMERICA, IS DEDICATED TO ADAM, THE FIRST MAN.

In the circular form surrounding the sundial is the Latin quotation: "Sic transit gloria mundi" (So passes the glory of the world).

"After all, there is no serious reason why there should not have been thousands of memorials to Adam," said Mr. Brady the other day. "Some of us may blame him for the misfortunes which we get in this world, but few of us wish that we had not been brought here. It was kind of Adam to come first. He paved the way and should receive the homage which we pay to pioneers in all fields. There seems to be glory enough to go around for every one who ever did anything, and many monuments and other tributes have honored men who never did anything."

"If it is so easy to get one's name graved in stone I thought it was high time Adam had something to show for having been here. Adam had a pretty hard time of it. He was something of a hero, after all. Just think of it, to be here on this big earth, not a soul until Eve came, and then—"

A "satisfactory" tariff schedule is an impossibility. There never was one and never will be. One that provides a given amount of revenue with the least dissatisfaction is about the best anybody has a right to expect. And the sooner we get it the better it will be for all concerned.

For once the Czar of Russia has done the right thing. He has released General Stoessel, the heroic but unsuccessful defender of Port Arthur, from prison. And Nebogatoff, an admiral, was also released. He surrendered in the naval battle in the Japan sea when resistance meant nothing but death for brave men. Verily, the Czar is beginning to see the light of civilization.

Ex-President Roosevelt is setting a bad example. The latest dispatch from Nairobi, South Africa, states that Mr. Roosevelt went out hunting last Sunday and killed a female rhinoceros. This act will probably be censured by at least two classes of people—one for hunting upon the Sabbath day, and the other for killing a living creature that had as perfect a right to its existence as Mr. Roosevelt himself, and which was possibly the mother of a helpless baby rhinoceros.

NATIONAL HEALTH BUREAU.

Nathan Straus Urges President Taft to Consolidate Agencies.

Nathan Straus, who was president of the Democratic Business Men's league in the late campaign and who is widely known in philanthropic circles through his efforts to supply pasteurized milk to the children of the poor, has addressed a letter to President Taft strongly commanding his project for the consolidation and enlargement of the health protective agencies. Mr. Straus says in part:

"The combination of these admirable agencies in one national health bureau would be an achievement for the public good such as would surpass in its ever increasing and lasting effect any other benefit that you could confer upon the nation that has placed the powers of government in your hands.

"There is no way in which greater good can be done to humanity than by protecting health and saving lives, by warding off disease and preventing death. The recent disclosure of the decline in the birth rate in America, as vividly shown in the shortage of 25,000,000 births in the past century, adds urgency to the cause that you have taken up in your instructions to Surgeon General Wyman."

WOMEN TO SAVE BASEBALL.

Wife of Manager Chance Tells Them to Quit Playing Bridge.

At the opening of the baseball season Mrs. Frank L. Chance of Chicago, wife of the world's champion leader and manager of the Chicago Nationals, is out in an interview declaring that it is upon women—not the flighty, volatile kind, but the steady home variety—that the future of the national game depends. To prevent the game from becoming a rowdy pastime, one only for bleachers full of men to watch, she believes that more women should occupy seats in the grand stand.

"If more women would forsake bridge whilst and pink teas, sofa cushions and kimonos and turn out to watch the cleanest sport in the world there would be more robustness and fair mindedness among our sex," Mrs. Chance said. "If women would only come out and expand their lungs to the fresh air by rooting for the home team there would be less work for the

TODD'S MARS PLANS

Professor to Live in Steel Tank to Signal Planet.

TEN MILES UP IN BIG BALLOON

Amherst Astronomer Will Use Air Craft Fitted With Wireless Apparatus to Intercept Possible Messages From Martians—Three Wires Will Reach to the Ground.

Professor David N. Todd, head of Amherst college observatory, in a recent interview announced his plans for picking up messages from Mars by means of wireless instruments carried up in a balloon to the edge of the earth's atmosphere, says a Boston dispatch. Shut up in an air tight tank borne aloft in a huge balloon, Professor Todd will make the first attempt ever made by the inhabitants of the earth to intercept messages from the people of the planet Mars, who, as astronomers are inclined to think, have been signaling to the earth by means of ether waves for years.

The attempt will be made in September, when the planet is at its nearest point to the earth. Professor Todd will be accompanied by Leo Stevens of New York, a celebrated aeronaut, who will endeavor to pilot the balloon to a height of ten miles. The outlay, it is expected, will not exceed $5,000.

"If there are human beings on Mars," said Professor Todd, "I have no doubt that they have been sending us messages for years and are still wondering at our stupidity in not replying. The Martians have found out the things that the people of this planet are still blindly groping for. Upon Mars they have progressed thousands of years beyond us. Many things that are mysteries here must be an open book there. Once give us a connecting link and in that moment we shall have unsealed a book which only tens of thousands of years of work and study could reveal.

compress cover screwed in place from the inside. As soon as we reach the low outside pressure above this cover will hold itself in place even though it were not fastened.

"The bottom of the cylinder will be of clear, thick glass, while there will be three or four windows around the sides. Inside there will be a chair for the comfort of the occupant.

"Just in front of this chair, where it can always be reached, will be a small rotary air pump for supplying oxygen from the outside when that in the tanks gets depleted. Both Mr. Stevens and myself will have an aneroid barometer for determining the air pressure inside, and the cylinder will have a safety valve, which will blow off at a pressure of from fourteen to fifteen pounds to the square inch.

"Within the cylinder there will also be mechanical means for performing certain work outside, such as throwing out ballast when desired, without diminishing the needed pressure in the tanks. The weight of each of these tanks, which will be built of either steel or aluminum, is to be about 200 pounds. We shall carry appliances for taking specimens of the air in this rarefied region, as it is asserted by many that the character of the atmosphere here so far above the earth is of an entirely different nature from that below.

"Within the cylinder there will also be mechanical means for performing certain work outside, such as throwing out ballast when desired, without diminishing the needed pressure in the tanks. The weight of each of these tanks, which will be built of either steel or aluminum, is to be about 200 pounds. We shall carry appliances for taking specimens of the air in this rarefied region, as it is asserted by many that the character of the atmosphere here so far above the earth is of an entirely different nature from that below.

THE SAME OLD BERRY STORY

But a Half Crop of Delicious Strawberries is Expected.

BY THE WAYSIDE

New Castle Courier: The editor of a daily newspaper is so accustomed to hearing complaints and receiving "kicks" that he becomes calloused to them and they have little effect; indeed, they receive only respectful attention and that is the end of the matter. When a kind word is bestowed or something is mentioned with hearty approval, the happy sensation produced is almost too much for the newspaper man. But things like that happen once in a while to brighten the life of the printer and reporter—and editor, too.

TO INLAND AUSTRALIA
FOR YOUR HEALTH

Round Trip Only $1.00.

If you are a catarrh, asthma or hay fever sufferer, what would you say if the above offer was made to you?

How would you like to go to the mountainous forests of pine and eucalyptus, where catarrh and asthma do not exist? Where people do not have to hawk every morning, to spit out the lump of disgusting mucus? Where the healing, antiseptic balsams purify and air and kill all germs?

You can't go to this ideal spot, of course. You havn't time, and possibly not money. But you can, for $1, bring the healing balsamic air from these forests right to your home; you can kill the germs of catarrh at home, without losing a minute's time.

Ask F. B. Johnson & Co. about Hyomei, the Australian dry air cure. Get an outfit, which includes inhaler, for $1, breathe the same air that you would find in Australia, and if it does not heal the raw membrane and cure you of catarrh, snuffles, cough, cold or asthma, you can have your money back.

Insentient body, he confronted Calendar and Stryker. The face of the latter was a sickly green, the gift of his fright. The former seemed coldly composed, already recovering from his surprise and bringing his wits to bear upon the new factor which had been so unceremoniously injected into the situation.

He was leaning heavily upon a hand that rested flat on the table. In this hand he held a revolver, which he had apparently drawn in self defense at the crisis of Mulready's frenzy. Its muzzle was deflected. He looked Kirkwood over with a cool gray eye, the color gradually returning to his fat, clean shaven cheeks, replacing the pardonable pallor which had momentarily rested thereon.

As for Kirkwood, he had covered the fat adventurer before he knew it. Stryker, who had been standing immediately in the rear of Calendar, immediately cowered and cringed to find himself in the line of fire.

Of the three conscious men in the brigantine's cabin Calendar was probably the least confused or excited. Stryker was palpably unmoved. Kirkwood was tingling with a sense of mastery, but collected and rapidly revolving the combinations for the reversed conditions which had been brought about by Mulready's drunken folly. His elation was apparent in his

"Well," he demanded testily, "what do you want of me?"

"I was just wondering at you, Calendar. In the last few days you've given me enough cause to wonder, as you'll admit."

The adventurer plucked up spirit, deluded by Kirkwood's pacific tone. "I wonder at you, Mr. Kirkwood," he retorted. "It was good of you to save my life, and—"

"I'm not so sure of that! Perhaps it had been more humane!"

Calendar owned the touch with a wry grimace. "But I'm hanged if I understand this high handed attitude of yours!" he concluded heatedly.

"Don't you?" Kirkwood's humor became less apparent, the smile sobering. "You will," he told the man, adding abruptly, "Calendar, where's your daughter?"

JOHN WITHERSPOON'S MEMORY IS HONORED

Statue Dedicated at Washington to Notable Figure.

Washington, May 20.—Signal honors were paid to the memory of John Witherspoon, the noted Scotch Presbyterian clergymen, once president of Princeton university; signer of the declaration of independence and member of the Continental congress, when a statue of him was dedicated here today. The occasion was a distinctly Presbyterian affair and many of the most prominent members of that faith were present.

The statue was unveiled by John Witherspoon Withers, seven years of age, a direct descendant in the seventh generation, and son of Professor Withers of the Agricultural college of North Carolina. The principal oration was delivered by Professor Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton university. James Bryce, the British Ambassador delivered an address entitled "Scotland's Contribution to America." The statue was presented to the city by a member of the board of commissioners of the District of Columbia.

CHILD IS A MANIAC

Since Witnessing the Murder of Her Mother by the Latter's Husband.

Atlanta, Ga., May 20.—As a result of witnessing the murder of her sleeping mother, Mrs. Mary Burge, by the latter's husband, five-year-old Sarah Britton, the woman's child by her first husband, has become a raving maniac. Burge entered his wife's room and stabbed her to death as she lay in bed asleep. The little girl, who was sleeping in the room, was awakened and saw the knife driven into her mother. She went into convulsions, which were followed by mania, and physicians say she will never regain her senses.

SHOT DOWN IN HIS OFFICE

Louisiana Physician Killed by Sixteen Year-Old Boy.

Morgan City, La., May 20.—Dr. Allen S. King, one of the most prominent physicians in this section of the state and a commander in the Louisiana naval brigade, was shot and killed in his office here by Leroy Oliver, a sixteen-year-old youth, who sought to avenge a slight cast upon his sister's life. Young Oliver fired two shots into the body of Dr. King and then walked to the courthouse and surrendered.

Lash Marks on Boy's Body.

Louisville, Ky., May 20.—Mrs. Mary App was on trial here for the alleged brutal punishment of Clifford Gaines aged five, who was formerly an inmate of the Home of the Board of Children's Guardians, and who was taken to the App home to live. Lash marks on the boy's body are said to have caused severe inflammation and the boy's father said that his son frequently had severe bruises and cuts on his body.

OIL MAGNATE DIES SUDDENLY

Henry H. Rogers Stricken Down by

Apoplex—Leaves Fortune of Nearly $50,000,000.

A NOTABLE CAREER ENDED

Passing of Man Who Held Position

Next to Rockefeller in Standard Oil Company.

New York, May 20.—The sudden death by apoplexy on Wednesday of Henry H. Rogers, the Standard Oil capitalist, at his home 3 East Seventy-eighth street, and the possible effect of this death upon the market, is the absorbing topic in financial circles.

Mr. Rogers was for many years one of the most prominent financiers of the country. He took a leading part in all of the enterprises undertaken by the Standard Oil group of capitalists, was vice-president of the Standard Oil company, and was the active spirit in the organization of the Amalgamated Copper company, of which he was president up to the time of his death. He also was interested in a number of railroads, serving as a member of the board of directors of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and the Union Pacific. The news of the death came as a surprise to Wall street. His health had been failing somewhat for several years and he had curtailed his financial operations to some extent on that account, but he continued to perform the duties of vice-president of the Standard Oil company. Mr. Rogers's fortune has been estimated at $50,000,000 or more.

COPIED BY UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

HENRY H. ROGERS.

Funeral services will be held in this city Friday morning, at the church of the Messiah, a Unitarian institution, of which the Rev. Dr. Robert Collier, a life long friend of Mr. Rogers, is pastor. Dr. Collier will conduct the services, after which the body will be taken to Fairhaven, Mass., Mr. Rogers's native town, for interment. Services also will be held there in the Unitarian church on Saturday.

NO EFFECT ON MARKET

Rockefeller Says Death of Rogers Is Merely a Personal Loss.

Hot Springs, Va., May 20.—When asked for an expression as to the effect Mr. Rogers's death would have upon the stock market and the business world, John D. Rockefeller replied:

"Mr. Rogers's death is a great personal loss to the business world, but it is only a personal loss. I am not familiar with his business affairs, but have every reason to believe they were all in good shape. Mr. Rogers has not been actively connected with the affairs of the Standard Oil company for more than two years."

Continuing, and plainly showing that the news had greatly affected him, Mr. Rockefeller said: "I have seen Mr. Rogers only twice during the last five years, and on both of these occasions, as well as often before, I urged him, with tears in my eyes, not to work so hard. I also pleaded with the members of his immediate family whenever I met them to urge him not to work so hard. But he was so strong, so powerful, that no one could persuade him to cast aside his burdens. I can only repeat that his death is a great personal loss, but that the business world will be in no way unfavorably affected."

No Decision Permissible.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 20.—Jack Johnson, colored heavy-weight champion, failed to win over Jack O'Brien, the Philadelphia light heavy-weight in a six round bout. The fight was even, and the consensus of opinion was that it should have been a draw, had a decision been permissible.

INDIANA POLITICS

ROBERT G. TUCKER.

Indianapolis, May 20.—Plans for putting Indianapolis on the "water-wagon" and making it the first "dry" capital city in the central states, are now being made by the anti-saloon league. That the anti-saloon leaguers have determined to tackle Indianapolis, which is decidedly "wet," has caused much worry among the "liberalists." It is said that petitions for an election here are now being circulated by church societies. It will be necessary to obtain nearly 15,000 names before an election shall be ordered. One official of the anti-saloon league says that several thousand dollars will be necessary to carry on a contest here, but it is said that the money is being subscribed.

The "liberalists" are counting on the open support of the business men who appreciate the benefits the city is deriving from the trade that is coming in from the "dry" counties. There are nearly 1,000 saloons here, besides five large breweries and several powerful brewery agencies that are counted to make a hard fight for their interests. What is more important, however, to the liberal element is the host of German voters who handed it to the Republicans here last November because they didn't like the principle of county local option. If the Germans vote as solidly against the anti-saloon league plans as they did against James E. Watson, Republican candidate for governor, and the Republican candidates for the legislature, it is thought that the city may be held in the "wet" column. If they don't, the brewers and saloon men admit that they will be defeated.

The 8,000 negro voters here are expected also to line up against the movement to make Indianapolis "dry" and arrangements are being made to handle them. The city is now beginning to recover from the effects of the recent panic and the "wet" element will try to show that to vote out the saloons will set the city back in a business way. County Auditor Sahn has issued a statement showing that the county would lose about $400,000 a year in revenue and would have to increase the tax levy at least twenty cents on the hundred dollars, if the anti-saloon league should win. His figures are being used effectively among the tax payers.

UNEXPECTED VISITOR

President of School Board Found in Neighbor's Corn Crib.

Hartford City, Ind., May 20.—County Commissioner Albert Hart looked out the window and saw a wagon near his corn crib. He went out and found a man in the crib. One sack was filled and the other partially filled. He took charge of the man, who proved to be Scott Bull, former superintendent of the Montpelier city schools, and at the present president of the Montpelier school board.

The explanation Bull gave Hart was that he had sold him a belt for his gas engine and that he was to get ground corn for it. He said he had not received the corn and took this method of getting his pay. Hart says Bull never asked him for the corn nor the money and that he has been missing corn from the crib for some time.

Hart filed an affidavit against Bull charging him with burglary and petit larceny. Bull is one of the most prominent men in Montpelier.

MAY HAVE TO KILL HIM

Lifer at the Ohio Pen Is in Hiding and Defies the Officers.

Columbus, Ohio, May 20.—Harvey Johnson, serving a life sentence for burglarizing an inhabited dwelling, is hiding at the penitentiary. Johnson is known as a desperate man and the probabilities are that if he does not successfully surrender he will be killed.

He was discovered missing early last evening and Warden Jones doubled the guard on the walls and sent in a detail to hunt him out. Just before midnight he was seen running across one of the streets behind the walls. Shots were fired at him, but it is not known that he was injured, as he quickly found cover again. A search revealed a rope ladder with large hooks on the end, with which Johnson evidently intended to escape.

OFFICIAL ATTACKS EDITOR

Michigan City Has Lively Fray Due to Newspaper Comment.

Michigan City, Ind., May 20.—Editor Carl Freitag of the Weekly Times was attacked by President R. C. Fedder of the Board of Public Works in a downtown saloon and badly beaten. The assault followed the publication of an editorial in the Times, in which the character of Fedder and the morality of the patrons of the Park Pavilion, of which he is part owner, was attacked. The Times was recently launched by former Mayor M. T. Krueger to boost him for mayor and is bitter toward Mayor F. C. Miller and his administration, of which Fedder is a part.

He Resisted Officer.

North Vernon, Ind., May 20.—Constable Cal Crumbaugh shot Levi Zwyer through the neck while attempting to serve an ejectment writ on the Zwyer family, consisting of Levi, Hayden and their sister.

The Coterie club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Trabue, in North Morgan street last evening. The meeting was an open one and each one of the fifteen members was entitled to bring three guests. The meeting was held to celebrate Mrs. Link Gary's birthday anniversary and the honored one was presented with a "tin loving cup" with a clever presentation speech by Mrs. Bigham. Many other "stunts" were arranged for the entertainment of the guests. A five-course supper was served during the evening.

WAS HIT ON THE ARM

Omer Pea Suffered Injury in Ball Game.

In writing of the base ball game between the Dayton Clippers and the local team, the "dope" writer of the Cambridge City team says: "Pea at third, was a shade off form, in a way caused by being hit on the arm by a pitched ball which left an ugly bruise. His play seemed to become weaker until the seventh, when Stiers relieved him and filled in much stronger. Stiers is to be used as pinch hitter and utility man."

LOCAL TALENT LYCEUM NIGHT

Talented Men and Women of the Colored Race in Rushville Give an Intellectual Treat.

LONG TO BE REMEMBERED

Songs and Well Written Papers Heard — Prof Williams Discusses Vital Issue.

Rev. Shumake announced Sunday that he was going to give one of the best evening's entertainment ever experienced by the colored people of Rushville. From the general remarks of persons present it was apparent that he had accomplished his purpose. Sure it is, the program was first class in every particular, and was given, substantially as published in our issue yesterday.

Miss Mary Miller acted as chairman of the meeting, and faced, when she arose to conduct the entertainment, one of the best audiences ever assembled in the Second Baptist church. The house was crowded, and the auditors were at all times attentive and responsive.

The church choir in the beginning furnished two splendid selections, amply sustaining the reputation of this organization, as a body of increasingly competent singers.

Rev. Leggett pronounced the invocation, and was followed by Miss Myrtle Ferguson, who discussed "The Hope of the Negro." She handled her subject well, and showed clearly that she has done much thinking along the lines of her race's possibilities. She laid down the proposition that the race's hope for future progress lies in his increased store of education, industry and culture.

Miss Dora Richardson discussed "The Progress of the Negro." She presented her subject in a comprehensive manner, and brought out many interesting facts in regard to the race's achievement. She divided her subject in such a way as to show her race's progress along three lines: education, morality and industry. The paper, as a whole, was very commendable, and threw much light on the economic life of the negro.

The Misses Alma and Amy Moore sang a duet. They are members of the choir, have good voices, rich in natural melody and are at all times pleasing.

Miss Nannie Leggett sang a very pleasing song. She has a fine presence, a well trained voice and handles it effectively. She has had special training as an elocutionist and is a recent graduate of a school of higher learning in Tennessee. Her singing last night was especially well received.

Miss Ida Miller's paper on "Race Unity," was full of many practical suggestions and was also a good survey of the negroes' needs from an ethnological standpoint. She showed great skill in arranging the details of her subject matter, and was given thoughtful and appreciative attention.

The singing of Miss Nannie O'rear was especially pleasing. She has decided abilities along that line, and made a lasting impression upon her audience. She has a clear, musical voice of good compass, that many a trained singer might envy. Her composure is well nigh perfect, giving to her personality in performance, a decided grace.

Prof. Williams closed the exercises with one of his characteristic speeches of fervid eloquence. His subject was "The Present Outlook." He is at all times eloquent, as we have had the pleasure of observing on past occasions, and last night was no exception to the rule. His command of language, epigrammatic statement, and his dramatic power place him among that rare number of speakers whom nature has especially endowed.

He agreed with all that previous speakers had said as to the progress of his race, giving statistics and comparative presentations of the intellectual life of peoples in other lands under more favorable conditions than those surrounding the negro in the early days of his freedom.

He pointed out the increasing hostility to the political rights of the negro in the South, citing Maryland and Florida, and called attention to the apparent increase of race prejudice in the North, and asserted, as a deduction, that the race is now passing through a critical period of its history.

He attributed the growth of race prejudice to the rash speeches of southerners who speak and write for northerners, and also to the undue prominence given to the negro criminal in our daily press, while little or nothing is said of his virtues, industrial and intellectual achievements.

He urged that the race, to stem the tide of increasing prejudice, must avail itself of every means that liberty gives, for the consummation of worthy achievement.

The speech made a deep impression upon the audience, and did, we feel sure, much inspirational good.

Rev. Shumake is to be commended for his "lyceum night's" entertainment, for the good of it is not far to seek.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Palace theater tonight a good bill will be shown, teeming with interest. Miss Mary Cole will sing the illustrated song "Airy Mary."

At the Vaudet tonight an extra good program will be given, being two comic films: "Nick Carter's Double" and "Calling Day." The illustrated song will be "The Same Old Girl."
